

What you need to take with you

Health papers and coggins if crossing any state lines or borders	Large Flashlight or Lantern with extra batteries	Pocket knife - or leathermen
Make sure your horse is up to date on shots and worming and you have the paperwork for it	Horseshoe replacement equipment or easy boot	Comb (for removing cactus spines if riding in the desert)
Horse ownership papers (eg: registration papers, bill of sale , lease agreement etc)	First Aid Kit- for you and your horses	Leather Lacing (for emergency tack repairs)
Water containers for horses- Allow for 20 gallons per horse daily.	Elastic-on Tape and Sterile Pads	Matches or Lighter- Small pocket flash light
Water and feed buckets	Bandages	Horseshoe replacement equipment or easy boot
Large feeders for keeping feed off ground, hay nets or hay bags.	Antibiotic Ointment	Waterproof saddle cover, poncho or rain gear for rider
Leather Punch	Saline for your eyes and horses	Halter and lead rope
Grooming equipment	Stethoscope	Riding gloves
Saddles and Bridle- Saddle pads	Bute- (Phenylbutazone)	Trail guide or maps
Extra saddle blanket	Furacin	Riders hat or Helmet
Extra Cinch or girth, & if riding English (extra leathers and extra stirrup)	Banamine - if horse ties up or colics	Long sleeved shirt and chaps
Extra reins	Acepromzine Tranquilizer	Dress warm enough if cold
Extra halter and lead rope	Horse Liniment liquid	Warm coat for you, long johns, heavy socks
shipping boots	Electrolytes	If it is hot , Sunscreen, Chapped Lip medication
Horse feed and Hay	Bran - for a bran mash if horse is a little colicky	Snack ,Water bottles
Horse blanket or rain sheet for cold night or raining ones.	Benelyn , and anti itch creme for bug bites	Camera
Fly Mask and Fly spray	Tylenol , for you	Compass or GPS
Scissors	Cold formula	Emergency signaling device-cell phone flares
Rope for high line or picketing, portable electric fence or portable corrals for overnight	Check List for your Ride	Bear spray or Bear bangers
	Hoof pick or Knife	Hobbles
	Insect repellent	